

SWOSU Dawg Days

08.13.2007

Southwestern Oklahoma State University in Weatherford has a variety of activities planned for Dawg Days, which will run August 18 (move-in day) through September 22 (Parent's Day).

A committee, chaired by Dean of Students Cindy Dougherty, has been busy planning this year's Dawg Days. SWOSU classes begin August 22.

On move-in day this Saturday, August 18, several offices will be open for the convenience of students and parents. Those offices include: Admissions & Recruitment; Auxiliary Services; Bursar; Burton House; Cafeteria; Dean of Students; Department of Public Safety; Freshens; Health Services; Human Resources; Registrar; Residence Life; Student Financial Services; University Bookstore; University Market; and Wellness Center.

For a complete list of activities, please check out www.swosu.edu/administration/studentdean/dawgdays/dawg-days-schedule.pdf.